• Only perform under the supervision of a qualified person.

• Continuously test for methane gas immediately before and during.

• Always evaluate the area for hazards and remove from area.

• Always wear proper personal protective equipment.

• Always ensure rock dust and suitable fire extinguishers are immediately available.

• Conduct a diligent search for fire during and after.